

“In the News” - A Source Analysis Activity

NAME(S): _____

DIRECTIONS:

Write a 60-second news report that covers the key ideas of the document you read and why it is important to understanding the history of the conflict.

HEADLINE
THE LEAD SENTENCE	Summarize what happened in a way that captures interest.
BACKGROUND INFORMATION	Give background information about the events taking place within the document using the 5Ws and H approach. WHO: WHAT: WHERE: WHEN: WHY: HOW:
QUOTATION(S)	Provide one or two quotes - cite evidence from the text or create a quote that would have likely been said by an individual involved with the events taking place.
CONCLUDING STATEMENT	Conclude with consequences or possible future leads.
NEWS REPORT	Use this space to write the body of the news report.