

Teaching History, Identity, and Resiliency

Thursday, November 12, 2026 from 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Thursday, November 19, 2026 from 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Location: 28123 Orchard Lake Rd, Farmington Hills, MI 48334

The Zekelman Holocaust Center (The HC) and Institute for Curriculum Services (ICS) are hosting FREE, immersive educator workshops and a place-based museum experience. You can sign up for one or both sessions!

November 12: Trace the origins, laws, traditions, and global impact of Judaism, while discovering its unique dual character as both a culture and a religion. Experience an educator-led tour of The HC's core exhibit, centered around pre-war Jewish life, and spiritual resistance during the Holocaust.

November 19: Explore Jewish American history and diversity to gain a practical toolkit for teaching multifaceted identity and how personal experiences shape worldview. Hear a powerful first-hand perspective from a Next Generation speaker on their family member's Holocaust experience and the intergenerational impact of genocide.

Educators will receive up to 8 SCECHs. All attendees will have access to the teaching materials used during the workshop. Meals will be provided.

Register to attend

Scan the QR code or click here to register

To learn more, contact Outreach Specialist, Willow Hokett-Reames, at Willow.Hokett@holocaustcenter.org

THE Zekelman
HOLOCAUST
CENTER

ICS Institute for
Curriculum Services